

A free app to manage quotes and win more business

Join the marketplace as a supplier Be visible to buyers

Hundreds of large buying organisations are using VendorPanel Marketplace to find and invite local suppliers to quote on their work.

“Toowoomba Regional Council is one of the biggest employers, but also the biggest spenders in the region. It is great for our region’s economic growth that we can now find and engage suppliers that have never worked with Council before”

Rico Taddio, Director of Taddio Building Group

How it works:

- Easy navigation - over 80 categories to help buyers find you
- Geolocation - helps buyer to easily identify local suppliers
- Mobile - receive and respond to RFQs on the go

It's proven - an audited case study found buyers selected local suppliers in 84% of cases

Set up your business profile today. It's entirely free.

Open your business up to more opportunities with local buyers. Give your staff access to a tool that helps them manage quotes and save time. Gain:

- Visibility over the process - see when your response is opened and actioned
- Timely notifications and reminders so you never miss an opportunity
- Time trawling through email with all documentation and communication in one place
- Access to your quotation history to refer back to jobs won and lost

“I do a lot from my phone, so being able to download the file for the job while I’m out in the field is awesome.”

Sophie Jones-Kelly, Acacia Environment Management
